GENEALOGY OF THE HIESTER FAMILY.

LESCUTCHEON : Azure, a Sun, or. Crest: Between two horns, surmounting a helmet offronté, a sun as in the Arms.

The origin of the Hiester family was the Silesian Knight Premiscloros Hüsterniz, who flourished about 1329 and held the office of Mayor, or Town Captain, of the city of Swineford.

A. D. 1480 the Patrician and Counsellor of Swineford, Adolphus Louis, called "der Hiester," obtained from the Emperor Frederick letters patent, whereby he and his posterity were authorized to use the coat-of-arms he had inherited from his ancestors, to whom it was formerly granted, with the faculty of transmitting the same, as an hereditary right and privilege, to all his descendants.

Dr. Lawrence Hiester, b. Frankfort-on-the-Main, September 19, 1683, d. Helmstedt, April 18, 1758, Professor of Surgery at Helmstedt from 1720, and the founder of modern German surgery, was a member of this family, also, doubtless, General von Hiester commanding the Hessian contingent in the British army during the Revolutionary war.

The American branches spring from three brothers, John, Joseph and Daniel, who were the sons of Johannes Hiester and wife Catharine. Their native place was the town of Elsoff, in the Grafschaft, County of Wittgenstein, province of Westphalia, Germany. The first of the brothers to reach America was John, the eldest, in 1732, who settled at Goshenhoppen, then in Philadelphia, now Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. He was followed by Joseph and Daniel, on the ship St. Andrew from Rotterdam, who took the oath of allegiance at Philadelphia on September 26, 1737, and immediately joined their brother. Here Daniel purchased a farm, already somewhat improved. Having thoroughly acquainted themselves with the nature of the country the brothers united in purchasing a tract of land from the Proprietary Government, between two and three thousand acres in size, in Bern Township of the present Berks County, Penna., extending from the old stone Bern church to the Tulpehocken creek. On this property the two elder brothers located whilst Daniel remained temporarily at Goshenhoppen until 1774 when he, also, removed to Berks County and took up his residence in the town of Reading.

Their graves stand together in the graveyard of the old stone Bern Church of Berks County, with one stone for the two.

As previously stated, he remained in Montgomery County until 1774 when he removed to Reading. He was a member of the Reformed Church of old Goshenhoppen, his name appearing on the original roll of male members entered in 1746 by Pastor George Michael Weiss on the church register.

He lived on a property in Upper Salford Township, immediately below the present village of Sumneytown, named after Isaac Sumony, who owned much property in that locality. He became a foremost man in the neighborhood. In 1757 he built a fine, two-story brick mansion on the east side of the turnpike, close to Ridge Valley Creek. It was sufficiently prominent to be noted on the map of Pennsylvania published by Nicholas Scull, the Province Surveyor, in 1759. It was a notable building in its day, and is still standing. A broad hall runs through the middle of the first story, on each side of which are spacious parlors; the second story is divided into bed rooms; above this is the roomy garret of the olden time.

Heavy eaves run along the gable roof, and a corresponding cornice forms the lower part of the gable. It was originally provided with a secret closet in which to hide plate during troublous times.

In 1777 he was appointed a Justice of the Peace for Berks County, where he was then living.
